

2010 SUPER TOUR

Each year the Sam Veasna Center in Siem Reap, Cambodia organizes a fund raising tour of the areas protected by the Wildlife Conservation Society. This year's trip was led by Howie Nielsen and Johnnie. They were accompanied by two forestry biologists from the USA, Rick Schaefer and Craig Rudolph. A total of 10 sites were visited in 14 days. Dawn to dusk efforts were the norm.

The itinerary was the following

Feb 15 Ankor Wat area, combining a bit of cultural tourism with the birds

Feb 17 The fresh water wetlands associated with the reservoir at Ang Trapeang Thmor

Feb 16 Prek Toal waterbird colonies on Tonle Sap lake

Feb 18-20 Tmatboey in the northern plains, birding the dry dipterocarp forest

Feb 20-21 Veal Krous, vulture restaurant

Feb 21-23 Okoki camp in mixed evergreen riparian forest, northern plains

Feb 18,24, 27, 28 -3 different sites of seasonally flooded grassland on the Tonle Sap floodplain, Wat Roulous, Stoung, Wat Prahout

Feb 24-25 Mekong river and floodplain wetland near Kratie
